

We would like to thank you for taking part in our survey. We received a number of good suggestions and positive feedback. Although we cannot implement every suggestion made, we will be focusing on the gradual implementation of the following developments:

- Biographies written in a more encyclopaedic style: As more metadata is filtered from the biographies, further metadata will be shown in the information box at the top right of each biography entry.
- Links to ainm.ie on Facebook and Twitter: Ainm currently has Facebook and Twitter accounts; they can be viewed at <http://www.facebook.com/pages/ainmie/166185116812434> and https://twitter.com/ainm_ie.
